

Agronomy Day Agenda

Quinta do Ataíde, Wednesday 29th August

9.30	Welcome address and purpose of Agronomy Days within the VineScout project. Francisco Rovira-Más (Coordinator) &amp; Charles Symington (SYM)	Symington Grape Collection Field in Quinta do Ataíde
9.45	How VineScout-II robot works: hardware, software, and improvements from previous prototype. Francisco Rovira-Más (UPV)
10.00	The value of massive data: what regular sampling may overlook. María Paz Diago (UDLR) and Fernando Alves (SYM)
10.30	Coffee break.
10.45	Groups organization for robot interaction.
11.00	Hands-on experience with the robot: measuring runs and data gathering. All attendees divided by groups.
13.00	Lunch and wine tasting with all participants.	Picnic area
14.15	Introduction of attendees: consortium, Project Officer, Advisory Board members, and stakeholders (end-users, researchers, companies, and press).	Bivouac at the picnic area
14.30	Initial results of mapping week (17-20 July): temperature maps. Verónica Saiz-Rubio (UPV)
15.00	Initial results of mapping week (17-20 July): NDVI maps. María Paz Diago &amp; Juan Fernández (UDLR)
15.30	Maps analysis from robot's morning interaction. Verónica Saiz-Rubio (UPV)
15.45	Grower-driven round table discussion: lessons learned and upcoming steps. Moderated by Pedro Leal da Costa (SYM) &amp; Javier Tardáguila (UDLR)
17.00	Official questionnaire to Agronomy Day participants. Administered by UPV &amp; SYM teams

Registration

Fernando Alves (SYM): + 351 91 8242929 | fernando.alves@symington.com
Joana Valente (SYM): + 351 91 9575308 | joana.valente@symington.com

Registration also available at www.vinescout.eu link registration: <http://vinescout.eu/web/newsgallery-2>

Clothing

We recommend comfortable outdoor clothes and shoes (bring a hat)

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 737669